

Coquitlam Retired Teachers' Association

Retiring?

Congratulations on your impending retirement! The Coquitlam Retired Teachers' Association (CRTA) invites you to join our Branch and the British Columbia Retired Teachers' Association (BCRTA). Membership is free for your first year. Eight hundred and twelve retired teachers from Coquitlam along with sixteen thousand provincial members welcome you!

The early days of retirement are a time of transition. There is time to reflect on a job well done and to enjoy opportunities for personal growth and satisfaction. The CRTA and BCRTA are here to support you throughout your retirement years. We are a non-partisan association that offers many benefits to members such as:

- Social events and Branch meetings to help you keep in touch with friends and former colleagues who belong to CRTA/ BCRTA.
- Regular pension and benefits information, updates and advocacy.
- Extended health benefit packages.
- Information on important issues that affect retirees.
- CRTA Newsletters, PostScript Magazine and BCRTA Connections Newsletters.
- Travel opportunities and travel insurance packages.
- Members' Advantage discount retail and travel offers.
- Home insurance.
- Opportunities to serve on provincial committees that support public education, public health care and social justice issues that affect retired people.

See what you're missing at: www.bcrta.ca

Branch contact: Caroline Malm, CRTA President

caroline@malm.ca

604-461-0008